Mayor Steven M. Fulop Files Lawsuit Against Christie Administration to Prevent Development of 'Millionaire's Marina' in Liberty State Park

What: On Tuesday, January 2nd, Mayor Steven M. Fulop will host a press conference to discuss the filing of a lawsuit against the Christie Administration for the proposed development of a marina on the southern end of Liberty State Park, in an attempt to prevent the project from moving forward. In December, the Fulop Administration entered into an agreement with the firm Riker Danzig, Scherer, Hyland, & Perretti, LLP to explore legal options for preventing the development of the 'Millionaire's Marina'. Mayor Fulop will be joined by representatives of statewide environmental groups who continue to play a crucial role in protecting valuable open space in Liberty State Park, and across New Jersey.
